United States District Court for the District of Maryland
Application for Admission to Practice

February 4, 2025

To whom it may concern,

Out of an abundance of caution, I am disclosing an expunged temporary suspension from the Virgin Islands Bar for negligently failing to pay bar dues or submit an Annual Registration Statement (ARS). Within one week of my suspension, I was reinstated as a member in good standing of the Virgin Islands Bar and the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands expunged my temporary suspension and sealed all records of the proceeding.

While working as an associate for Sidley Austin LLP from 2021 to 2022, I was admitted pro hac vice to the Virgin Islands Bar through local counsel. When I left Sidley in July 2022, I withdrew as counsel in all my pending matters and sent local counsel the requisite paperwork to end my representation.

On or around September 14, 2023, the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands temporarily suspended my bar admission for failing to pay the annual fees and file an ARS. At that time, I learned that local counsel inadvertently failed to effectuate my termination in 2022. I worked diligently with the Virgin Islands Office of Disciplinary Counsel to update my ARS forms and pay all fees. I petitioned the Virgin Islands Supreme Court to withdraw its temporary suspension order, reinstate me as an active member in good standing of the USVI Bar, and expunge any records of my temporary suspension.

On September 21, 2023, the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands granted my petition in full, reinstated me, and expunged and sealed any records of the proceedings. Shortly thereafter, local counsel filed a motion to terminate my pro hac vice representation, which was also granted. I am willing to provide copies of my petition and the court's final order upon request. I remain in good standing in both the California and Washington D.C. bars, and am also a member of the bars for the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, D.C. Circuit, and the United States Supreme Court.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with questions.

Respectfully,

Sam Zwingli
